Main Appraisers and Approvers: What's New and What's Notable

Appraisal Action	What's Notable	Additional Notes
View People in Hierarchy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BUTTON – click to go to a list of direct reports with an action icon that displays all previous appraisals by employee 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Quick and easy way to access previous appraisals/attachments
Adhoc Approvers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When adding multiple Adhoc Approvers, if you add an incorrect approver, or an approver in the incorrect order, you must delete all Adhoc Approvers in numeric order back to the incorrect approver. • Then you can add the Adhoc Approvers back in the correct order. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reminder: Carefully review and choose the “Insertion Point Before” when adding an Adhoc Approver • How To document available online – see link below
Request Additional Information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requests now travel through your EMAIL notifications • Responses now should be made via your EMAIL notifications (e.g. same as timecards, leave requests, training requests...) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access requests and respond via your regular County email account
Rejected Appraisal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Returned IMMEDIATELY to the supervisor by OPA • Rating or Comments need to be revised: Click on the yellow pencil icon to update the appraisal, make the changes, and then follow the regular process to resubmit for approvals • Attachments need to be added, deleted or revised: Click on the trash can icon, confirm the deletion (Yes) and then create a new appraisal with the correct attachments following regular process to resubmit for approvals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supervisor accesses the appraisal through Manager Direct Access then Performance Appraisal Process • You will still get error message for appraisal for same employee/dates – change * Appraisal Date to one day before the date listed • Refer to the Rejected Appraisal document online – see link below
Email Notifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • OPA email notifications now work just like the email notification you receive for other Oracle transactions (e.g. timecards, leave requests, training requests...) • Appraisal actions available via the email notification include: Approve, Reject, Request Information, Answer 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applies only to supervisors and approvers • Employees cannot access/complete the appraisal using the email notification
Worklist Notifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Are the recommended method of access/approval/reject because they access and process the action on the appraisal more quickly than the email notifications (which are now available and actionable – see above) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Main Appraisers can still ignore the “Appraisal of... Needs Your Attention” notification which is generated each time you start or save an appraisal
Employee Access	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employees MUST access the appraisal via Employee Direct Access then My Appraisals then the yellow pencil update icon to open an actionable appraisal with working buttons and attachments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Completed appraisals are still available via Employee Direct Access then click on My Appraisals
F5 key	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refreshes the appraisal/page/ site as needed • If the lower left corner shows “Done” and your button/action did not occur – press the F5 key 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Allow a up to a minute for the system to respond before using the F5 key
Buttons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If button doesn't respond or initiate the next step/window, press the F5 key to refresh the page/site 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rarely encountered, could happen after adding Adhoc Approver

ADDITIONAL TIPS and REMINDERS
Limitations	Character limit of 2000 characters (still includes all spaces and all punctuation and all the alpha and numeric characters). No limit on the number of attachments.	No spell check – use Word for spell checking comments
Using the correct Appraisal Template:	Annual Appraisal: The normal evaluation, given annually, which covers approximately 26 pay periods	Probationary Appraisal: The evaluation following the initial 12-month period for a new hire in any position
	Annual/Probationary Appraisal: Single form used only for employees hired between 4-30-2018 and 6-22-2018 that have completed 12-months of service to complete both the probationary evaluation and the annual appraisal on just one form	Extended Appraisal: A follow-up evaluation given after an evaluation period has been extended Interim Appraisal: An evaluation given at any point during an evaluation period to provide formal feedback on an employee's performance (recommended but not required)
Changing Hierarchy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the hierarchy is incorrect, do not submit the appraisal. Cancel the appraisal and delete the saved appraisal if necessary Submit a Human Resources Action Form to HR to change the hierarchy. Changes occur automatically in the system as soon as they are keyed by HR 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The online process uses the most current HRMS hierarchy – any change in hierarchy requires an HR Action Form Confirm with HR changes have been keyed before submitting the appraisal
